Research in Science & Technology

A Note on Fractional Exponential Function	01-04
A Proactive Maintenance by Using Micro Surfacing for Pavement	05-08
Fast Charging Method for Electric Vehicles Based On Cascaded Multilevel Converter	09-12
Carbon sequestration capacity of four mangrove forest tree species in the coastal regions of Bhola, Bangladesh	13-18
Lightly doped crystallized silicon (LDCS) film with coplanar electrodes for bio-sensing application through current-voltage, impedance and surface potential measurements: Detection of proteins and antibody	19-22
Design and Implementation of Orchard LED Supplement Light Control System based on Wireless Network	23-35
Investigation of the effect of operating conditions of a 3-axle on safety of vehicle assemblies and road surface friendliness	36-40
Model of Factors Affecting the Entrepreneurial Intention of Students	41-46
Dumping, the deteriorating element of domestic businesses: An empirical evidence from Pakistan's industries	47-52
Comparative analysis of the results of field testing and analytical calculation of piles in subsidence soil	53-60
Characterization of the frequency of hydroclimatic extremes in the lower Ouémé valley	75-82
The Economic Impact of Airline Reservation and Air Transport System in Nigeria	83-86
Acetaminophen Synthesis Reaction Performance Using Ultrasound, Microwave, and Conventional Methods	87-94
The use of Maxwell's equations to control absorption coefficient through conductivity, refractive index and wave guide dimensions	95-99
